ſieged have made ſome ſecret Overtures of a Capitulation. Our laſt Letters from Genoa inform us, That three Britiſh Men of War were ſailed from Leghorn for Gaeta, in order to block up that Place by Sea; and that the reſt of the Squadron, with the other Veſſels, which Sir Cloudeſly Shovell has left in thoſe Seas for tranſporting Troops to Spain, will wait at Genoa till they receive further Directions from Prince Eugene.

Francfort, October 12. We are aſſured by Letters from the Imperial Army, That they continue to work with great Application upon the new Line which they are drawing from the Valley of Gretzbeck to the Banks of the Rhine near Raſtadt; and that the Army would ſeparate as ſoon as that Work was finiſhed. The Elector of Hanover is in frequent Conference with the Deputies of the Circles, about Winter Quarters, in order to poſt the Troops as near the Rhine as poſſible, and by that Means to have them in a Readineſs for the more early opening of the next Campaign. We are aſſured, that his Electoral Highneſs, for the ſame Reaſon, will paſs the Winter at Mayence. The Marſhal de Villars is ſtill covering his Army with Intrenchments, and hath thrown up the greateſt Part of the Line which is to reach from Kuppenheim to Raſtadt, with a Deſign, if poſſible, to ſettle his Quarters on that Side of the Rhine. We have received Letters from Augsburg of the 10th Inſtant, with Advice, That the Baron Wetzel, who commanded the Siege of Gaeta after having been twice repulſed, with conſiderable Loſs, had taken the Place Sword in Hand, with a great Slaughter of the Gariſon, and made the Duke of Eſcalona, the former Viceroy of Naples, a Priſoner of War. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough is expected very ſuddenly at the Camp of Ettingen, in order to confer with his Electoral Highneſs upon the preſent State of Affairs, and the Operations of the enſuing Campaign.

Hamburgh, October 14. Mr. Robinſon, Envoy Extraordinary from Her Majeſty of Great Britain to the King of Sweden, is arrived in this City. Letters from Breſlau of the 8th Inſtant adviſe, That Count Zinzendorf, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor to the Court of Sweden, came thither on that Day, having left the King of Sweden near Lowitz, within 12 Leagues of Warſaw, preſſing his March with the utmoſt Diligence to gain the Paſſage of the Viſtula. His Troops found in Poland ſufficient Quantities of Forage and Proviſions for their Subſiſtance; but the Muſcovites in their Retreat having burnt all the Mills of the Countrey, the Swedes were put to great Difficulties for the grinding of their Corn. The Czar has march'd with his whole Army out of his Quarters in Poland, and retired into Lithuania, to cover the Frontiers of his own Country. The Poliſh Nobility finding themſelves abandoned by him, have ſubmitted in great Numbers to King Staniſlaus; and, at the ſame time, beg'd Pardon for their Obſtinacy, which had brought upon them all the Miſeries of a long and cruel War. His Majeſty, who is a Prince of great Humanity, condoled with them in a very affectionate Manner for their Sufferings, and received them with the moſt generous Inſtances of Tenderneſs and Compaſſion.

Hague, Octob. 18. N. S. We hear, That his Grace the Duke of Marlborough began his Journey towards the Rhine on the 15th Inſtant, and that he would arrive at Duſſeldorp on the 17th. His Grace will again viſit the Army in Flanders before they go into Winter Quarters; it being thought expedient that they ſhould keep the Field till the firſt of November, to hinder the French from ſending any Detachments to Germany. Letters from France inform us, That, according to their laſt Advices from Spain, the Duke of Orleans had been obliged, by the great Rains that were again fallen in thoſe Parts, to put off the opening of the Trenches before Lerida to the 2d of this Month; and that his Royal Highneſs expected a Reinforcement with great Impatience. The Duke of Anjou had ordered the Marquis de Bay to ſend that Prince a Detachment of 6 Regiments, and the Chevalier d'Aſfeld to lay aſide the Siege of Morella, and join him as ſoon as poſſible with the 10 Battalions and 14 Squadrons which are under his Command. By Letters from Lions of the 8th Inſtant we hear, That a Courier paſſed through that Place from the Army under the Marſhal de Teſſé, with Advice, That all the Paſſes which led to Suſa had been ſo well ſecured by the Vigilance of Prince Eugene, that it had been found impracticable to relieve the Caſtle, which ſurrender'd on the 5th Inſtant, after having ſuſtained a regular Siege of 12 Days. There were found in the Place a prodigious Quantity of Arms and Ammunition, as well as great Magazines of Proviſions and Forage.

By the Receiver General for Prizes.

Notice is hereby given, That the Officers and Company of Her Majeſty's Ship Falkeve will, on Monday the 20th Inſtant, be paid their Proportions of the Prize Ship L'Audacious of St. Malos, according to the Directions in Her Majeſty's moſt Gracious Declaration for the Encouragement of Her Ships of War, &c.

Advertiſements.
